Seabury course offerings – Fall 2012 –Summer 2013

Revised 20120912

Course # Level
Note: MDiv: 2000-3999 Introductory
4000-4999 Advanced
DMin: 5000-
CEU: 300

ACTS Area of Study	SWTS Course Number	Course Title and Description	Instructor	Time
FALL 2012 (September 4 – December 12)
H	CH 2001 CH 301 Fall 2012	Episcopal Church History, Polity and Canon Law This course concentrates on the ways in which the transplanted Church of England in North America was transformed by its new contexts. The course uses case studies to explore events and leadership styles that have shaped the Episcopal Church. This course fulfills the canonical requirement for the study of canon law. MDiv, CEU	Bill Sachs with Ellen Wondra	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work begins: Sept. 4, final work due Dec. 12 and Onsite classes: Fri 1 – 9 p.m & Sat 8:15 a.m. – 4 p.m. Dates: Sept 21-22 Nov 2-3 Nov 30-Dec 1 3 cr hrs
M	SP 2000 SP 300 Fall 2012	Praying Shapes Believing This class offers an orientation to a variety of spiritual practices, with attention to principles that guide their use for personal formation and cultivation of communities. Participation involves experiential learning. MDiv, CEU	Griswold & Ialongo	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work begins: Sept. 4, final work due Dec. 12 and Onsite classes: Fri 1 – 9 p.m & Sat 8:15 a.m. – 4 p.m. Dates: Oct 12-13 Nov 9-10 Dec 7-8 3 cr hrs
January 2013 (January 7- January 25)
Religion and Society	TH 5003 TH 4003 TH 303 January 2013	Contemporary Issues in the Episcopal Church and Anglican Communion This course offers participants an opportunity to explore contemporary issues through an Anglican tradition of thoughtful theological reflection, dialogue, and examination of courses of action that reflect baptismal living and are applicable to daily lives and decisions. MDiv, CEU	Zscheile	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work: Begins Dec 26th, final work due Feb 15 and Onsite classes: January 7-11 M-F 8:15 a.m.-4:30 p.m. 3 cr hrs

ACTS Area of Study	SWTS Course Number	Course Title and Description	Instructor	Time
H	CH2000 CH 300 January 2013	Embodied Grace (The Anglican Ethos) This course will explore the nature and practice of Anglicanism as it is expressed in works of art, particularly novels, plays, poetry and music spanning the 15th to 21st Centuries. Anglicanism is practical, spiritual, rooted in love, and experiential, with a historic emphasis on Incarnation over Atonement as the basis of salvation. Beyond this, Anglicans don't so much talk about grace as make it visible in words, music, movement and the visual arts. This course is available for academic credit or enrichment. In addition, several sessions will be open to the public on drop-in basis. MDiv, CEU	Dally	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work begins: Jan 7, final work due Feb 15 And Onsite classes: January 14-18 M-F Hours: TBD 3 cr hrs
T	TH 2000 TH 300 January 2013	Anglican Theology and Ethics A primary focus of the course will be the breadth and variety of theologies and ethics in the worldwide Anglican Communion. MDiv, CEU	Wondra	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work begins: Jan 7, final work due Feb 15 And Onsite classes: January 21-25 M-F 8:15 a.m.-4:30 p.m. 3 cr hrs
M	CD 5010 CD 4010 CD 310 January 2013	Non-profit Management and Community Development: Making Mission Possible in Tough Times This course will explore how mission focused fundraising and greater neighborhood involvement can breathe new life into congregations at a time when many are struggling with shoe-string budgets and exploding social needs in their communities. DMIN, MDiv, CEU	Harlow, Kretzmann, Nahirney	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work: Jan 2-Feb 15 And Onsite classes: January 21-25 M-F 8:15 a.m.-4:30 p.m. 3 cr hrs
Spring 2013 (Feb 4-May 15)
M	LM 2000 LM 300 Spring 2013	Anglican Liturgy and Music An introduction to the principles and practices of Anglican worship with particular focus on the Episcopal Church. MDiv, CEU	Seifert & DeLisio	Intensive hybrid (classroom and online) Online work begins: Feb 4, final work due May 15 and Onsite classes: F 1p – 9p & Sat 8:15a – 4p

ACTS Area of Study	SWTS Course Number	Course Title and Description	Instructor	Time
				Dates: Feb 15-16 Mar 15-16 Apr 19-20 3 cr hrs
SUMMER 2013 Session 1 (May 28 – June 28)
M	CD 5001 CD 4001 CD 301 Summer 2013	Congregations in the 21st Century This course will examine the religious congregation from a theological, historical, sociological, economic, and leadership perspective. DMin, MDiv, CEU	Harlow	Onsite: June 3-7 M-F 8:15 am-4:30 pm Online work begins: May 28, final work due June 28 3 cr hrs MDIV 1 Unit DMIN
SUMMER 2013 Session 2 (June 3 – July 5)
M	CD5003 CD4003 CD303 Summer 2013	Community Organizing Community organizing is all about relationship building. This course will assist congregational leaders in getting to know the wider community context in which the local church is situated. Taught by staff of the Industrial Areas Foundation. DMin, MDiv, CEU	Lenz & Staff	Onsite: June 9-15 Sun – Sat Begin Sunday at 6 PM and End Sat at 4PM Online work begins: June 3, final work due July 5 Daily times TBD 3 cr hrs MDIV 1 Unit DMIN
SUMMER 2013 Session 3 (June 10 – July 12)
M	CD 5012 CD 4012 CD 312 Summer 2013	Nonprofit Management Business savvy and theology dovetail in this innovative one-week leadership program tailored to meet the distinctive needs of lay and clergy leaders. Through lecture, case examples, interactive exercises and classroom dialog, participants will gain an understanding of general management principles and how successful nonprofit organizations operate. DMin, MDiv, CEU	TBA	Onsite: June 17-21 M – F Times TBD Online work begins June 10, final work due July 12 3 cr hrs MDIV 1 Unit DMIN