

THE GENERAL BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

800 Eastowne Drive, Suite 104 Chapel Hill, NC 27514

Telephone (919) 489-1422, Fax (919) 489-1829

The Rev. Locke E. Bowman, Jr., Executive Secretary

to the Bishop and the Commission on Ministry of
In reference to

March 1, 1999

We, having been assigned as Examiners of this Candidate, hereby testify that we have examined the said Candidate upon the subject matter prescribed in Canon III.7. Sensible of our responsibility, we give our judgment regarding this examination as follows:

Canonical Area	Outstanding	Adequate	Inadequate	Insufficient evidence
The Holy Scriptures	✓
Church History, including the Ecumenical Movement	✓
Christian Theology	✓
Ethics, and Moral Theology	✓
Studies in Contemporary Society, including racial and minority groups	✓
Liturgies and Church Music	✓
Theory and Practice of Ministry	✓

Outstanding means work of superior quality.

Adequate means work that satisfies minimum requirements.

Inadequate means work that shows unsatisfactory grasp or use of required subject matter.

Insufficient evidence means that there was not enough relevant material on which to base an evaluation.

The General Board of Examining Chaplains

Hays H. Rockwell    Edward L. Lee, Jr.
John H. Loving        Harold T. Lewis
Leonel L. Mitchell   Charles P. Price
Ellen K. Wondra      Mary S. Donovan
Jo Ann Giannini

Robert L. Ladehoff
Mark Taylor Crawford
Harmon L. Smith
Alda M. Morgan

Arthur H. Walmsley
Philip M. Duncan, II
Thomas E. Breidenthal
Susan Hill Lindley
Leonard W. Johnson

Michael B. Curry
Anne W. Robbins
Guy F. Lytle
Mary C. Callaway

Chairperson

Vice-Chairperson